ive noticed that the abbey riverside and harveys quay developments have been removed from the plan, while an understandable reaction due to the reactionary protesters, i suggest holding a public poll after the bus service has been running for a few weeks to see if these should be reinstated, the cause of the protests was caused by the current parking problem in the town center, a problem that should be resolved once the bus service is online hopefully within the next 2 months theres a need for housing and especially dense town center housing, especially during this housing crisis, please dont throw away these plans too appease reactionaries
